Dear Parents and Carers

There seems to be some confusion with sending in reading books.

Please remember that we need to isolate anything brought in from home for 72 hours. As already mentioned we just do not have enough books to keep sending them home.

Books will be sent home on a MONDAY.

Books need to be sent to school on a THURSDAY. We can then isolate them over the weekend ready to go home on Monday.

If books are not sent in on the correct day we cannot guarantee getting one home that week.

We have found that higher up the school children have missed not having a school book, so we will now start sending one home – we appreciate these may take longer than a week to read, so you do not need to keep sending them in weekly.

I do know that this is frustrating at times but please bear with us. I can assure you we are hearing children read regularly in class.

Yours sincerely

Kay Wood
